Maintained schools and other education provision deliver services which can present a variety of significant risks to staff and pupils. Whilst an essential and integral part of the educational process is to identify and manage risk, ensuring appropriate health and safety management exists within the school and educational environment remains a responsibility of the Council as the employer.

Day to day health and safety management of employees, pupils, premises, and activities is delegated to Governing bodies and Headteachers who are required to put in place local school specific policies, procedures, and arrangements to fulfil the statutory and Council obligations.

Health and safety advice is available from the schools H&S Team for Headteachers and Governing Bodies to ensure that they are conversant with their responsibilities and comply with all requirements, email: healthandsafetyhelp@oxfordshire.gov.uk.

School health and safety support services are provided by the Schools H&S Team traded service which includes (but not limited to):

Where failure to satisfactorily manage health and safety in schools and other educational provision services is identified, the Health and Safety Team will draw such failure to the attention of the Deputy Director and appropriate senior managers for information and to provide appropriate guidance and support.

Under section 29(5) of the Education Act 2002, local authorities have powers to direct health and safety matters relating to school premises or school activities taking place elsewhere in maintained schools. The Council will only use these powers when a school's health and safety arrangements are inadequate and direct intervention is required.

Where asbestos containing materials remain in situ the school shall ensure that they are managed in such a manner so that the risk to the health of our employees, contractors, visitors, and other people using our premises is minimised.

All work on asbestos containing materials shall be carried out in accordance with the current legal standards using the best working practices by licensed contractors.
