Easter Holiday Homework

Dear Families,

We have really enjoyed our topic of 'Rocks, Relics and Rumbles' and looking at why natural disasters occur and the effects of these disasters. We have been impressed by the hard work that everyone has put into their learning.

However, it is time to move on to another exciting topic. Next term, we will be learning about Emperors and Empires, predominantly the Romans.

Over the Easter holiday, we would like each child to complete a detailed piece of work based on one of the Roman gods listed below. We would like you to find out about your chosen god and write a short profile about them. The piece should be presented on an A4 piece of paper and include a small picture/drawing.

Please choose from:

- . Jupiter
- . Diana
- . Pluto
- . Mars
- . Juno

There will be no maths, comprehension or spelling homework over the holiday and this piece of work should be returned on the first day back after the holiday, Monday 13th April.

We wish you a happy, healthy and enjoyable holiday.

Best wishes,

Mrs Clark and the Phoenix Team.
