

Through the Ages Helpsheet

Have a go at drawing/painting/ or modelling the outside of a Bronze Age house.

Remember:

- That that the houses were round.
- The walls were made of woven wood and were held up by big posts.
- The roofs had grass on them.
- There might have been sheep eating the grass on the roof!
- There were dogs living in the village.

Have a go at drawing/painting/ or modelling the inside of a Bronze Age house.

Remember:

- The houses were round.
- The walls were made of woven wood and were held up by big posts.
- The floors were made of bundles of thin twigs.
- There would have been a fire inside so it might have been smoky.
- People would have been cooking, spinning and weaving.
- There were no electric lights so it might have been quite dark.
